

Dunedin Boat Club Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to us. It is Dunedin Boat Club's policy to respect your privacy regarding any information we may collect from you across our website, <https://www.dunedinboatclub.org>, and other sites we may operate.

We collect information from you to provide member related services to you and the other members of the Dunedin Boat Club. The information is collected by fair and lawful means, with your knowledge and consent.

We promise to protect any information you share with us using commercially acceptable means to prevent loss and theft, as well as unauthorized access, disclosure, copying, use, or modification.

We do not share any personally identifying information publicly or with third-parties, except when required to by law.

Our website may link to external sites that are not operated by us. Please be aware that we have no control over the content and practices of these sites and cannot accept responsibility or liability for their respective privacy policies.

You are free to refuse our request for your personal information, with the understanding that we may be unable to provide you with some of your desired services, including the use of our website and our membership directory.

Your continued use of our website will be regarded as acceptance of our practices around privacy and personal information. If you have any questions about how we handle user data and personal information, feel free to contact us.

This policy is effective as of August 26, 2021 and is subject to change without notice.
